1. Hear now the call of the Maker of all,
ringing from ages before you were born;
God knew your name long before the first dawn;
spoke it in love as God gave you your form.

*Hear now the call, "Come follow me!"
Answer the call – give God your all!
In God you'll find who God made you to be;
God will transform you – God will set you free!*

2. Nobody else – no not even yourself –
knows you like God who designed you so well.
God understands all the depths of your hell,
Willingly for you God gave you God-self.
3. Answer the call, come surrender it all;
hold on to nothing that may make you fall.
Let every part of you live to God's praise;
you are a temple of God's holy grace.
