Music: to the tune of SCARBOROUGH FAIR (9.8.9.9.) Traditional

1. All who sleep in the cold earth below,
to the Lord they surely shall bow,
they who go down to dust all will bow;
we stand in awe and worship Him now!
2. Those who follow in times still to come –
future generations – will bow;
Those yet unborn will hear us proclaim:
we stand in awe and worship Him now!
3. We will trust in the promise of God,
He who raised our Lord from the grave,
Against all hope our hope never fades,
for He was raised so we could be saved.
4. We will live for the ruler of all,
and rather die than give up our crown.
Though every knee one day will bow down,
we stand in awe and worship Him now!

Based on Revised Common Lectionary (B) for 2nd Sunday in Lent:

Genesis 17:1-7, 15-16; Psalm 22:23-31; Romans 4:13-25; Mark 8:31-38
