1. Let my voice be ever changing
from the noise I used to be;
end my useless ceaseless clanging,
set my captive audience free.
Let love, your love, love and more love
as from you now flow from me.

2. Let me hear the word from your lips,
teach me how the world should be.
Fill me now with your pure purpose;
Let me not be full of me.
Let love, your love, love and more love
tune me to your harmony.

3. I would seek no greater gift, Lord,
than to learn to love like you;
No great wisdom nor profound word
can achieve what love can do.
Let love, your love, love and more love
also be my gift for you.
