1. If all my dreams in shatters lie
when trampled by my doubt,
I still will cling to this one thing:
it was not in vain He died!
2. If I should feel the weight of death
when this life seems too harsh,
I still will cling to this one thing:
it was not in vain He bled!
3. When I no longer can defend myself against my worst,
I still will cling to this one thing:
His death was not the end!
4. He rose! He rose! Come let us sing
though tears yet run their course;
He rose, and those who know He rose
to that one hope still cling!
