1. Long before the world began
I was known – it humbles me!
Sculptor of the sky and sand,
laid down both the land and sea,
sprinkling stars in glorious span;
Lord of all – and God knew me!
2. In my frailty, I am known;
From the prison of my shame,
by God's grace at last I've flown;
God has called me out by name!
All my darkness God could see:
still God healed and set me free!
3. Long before my mother's womb
I was known in God's design.
On and on God works the loom,
weaves divine a story line
even simple threads like mine
in the Masterpiece Divine!
4. God knows where the thread will lead,
knows my each tomorrow well.
leads me to those most in need,
cast away and sorrowful.
God knows why God should choose me –
I know that God will use me
