Chorus: *Burning sands will soon become a spring
See! Pools where once was dry.
Now we sigh but soon you'll hear us sing
and laugh where once we cried!*

1. A wilderness, oh so dry,
each heart that thirsts for you;
So quench us, Lord, oh hear our cry!
Oh, bring our hearts to bloom.

2. We feeble, frail beings of dust
our hearts are insecure;
Oh, make strong, and teach us trust
and help us to be sure:

3. The signs are all around now;
Say, can you smell the rain?
Hark! From the desert comes a sound –
a prophet who proclaims:

4. The signs are you and I now –
the hearts that God transforms;
The blind who see, the lame who walk;
The mute who sing this song:
