1. The stars in endless multitudes – oblivious to our ignorance – sing ceaselessly their endless tunes of praise in glorious radiance.
2. They use no words where words must fail, yet in their very essence bright their songs do wondrous truths convey of One who is their Source and Light.
3. Where wounded silence forms a wall, a barrier words cannot assail,
may those besieged look up enthralled
and see the song they cannot hear.
4. Now in your Image, let us shine and add our light to heaven's display.
That those who seek may look and find the Hope that lies beyond the night.
5. O Breath Divine, inspire us then with every breath to live and love a life-song that will ever sing of One who is both Life and Love!
6. How beautiful that harmony of life-songs all together raised in living, loving symphony with all creation, to your praise!

Based on Revised Common Lectionary (B) for Transfiguration Sunday:

2 Kings 2:1-12 Psalm 50:1-6 2 Corinthians 4:3-6 Mark 9:2-9
