1. What equips us for this call?
Are we able? Not at all!
Yet the call is clear. We know:
where God sends us we must go,
trusting nothing of our own,
trusting we are not alone.
2. Nothing we can take along,
is enough to makes us strong;
no red bull, no carbo-load
can equip us for this road.
All our skills and wallets too
none of these can see us through.
3. Where then is the strength we need?
In our weakness, Lord, we see:
your great strength comes shining through;
all we need is found in you.
Grace sufficient, overflows.
You have sent us. We will go.
