Music: may be sung to KINGSFOLD [DCM] English/Irish traditional melody

1. Oh, should we tremble then in fear when panic-mongers cry that we must learn to read the signs or we will surely die?
And should we crumble in dismay to learn “the end is nigh”?
No, we will live each day in hope beyond the end of time.
2. Do we forget so easily the hope in which we live?
What happened to the confidence that is our precious gift?
Hold fast now to that precious hope that only God can give and seize the gift of every breath and to God’s glory, live!
3. We are not called to read the signs or understand God’s time We are not called to preach of death and judge our neighbours crimes No, we are called to share the hope that only God can give our message is that God is life come, know the Lord and live!
4. Lord show us now the path of life and let us not be moved for condemnation is a lie and we have nought to prove No, Christ alone can win that fight and that has long been done Now on our hearts the Father writes His laws of life and love.
