1. We have prayed for miracles, for blind to see and lame to walk We have waited for your voice to call the lame to come and dance Let the deaf now hear your answer Cure the cancer, raise the dead Sorrow, sighing, hear us crying for an answer, for your voice

2. We have prayed for rain for farmers in the season of great drought We have waited for your strength to flow through bodies bent and frail Let the fearful hear your comfort “Come, be strong, and do not fear”
Sorrow, sighing, hear us crying
for your comfort, for your voice

3. We have prayed for someone great to bring a message for the poor Send a prophet full of power full of words of Kingdom come Shake the world with words of justice ‘til the broken hear your hope Sorrow, sighing, hear us crying
for your justice, for your voice

4. We have prayed now send us, send us, give us vision and a path May we walk and talk your answer may our actions be your voice May our ears bend to the voiceless in our weakness, sharing strengths Sorrows sharing, sighing, caring send us on your Holy Way.
